Delicate situation... and a loooooong story behind. But we have plenty of time, do we? (Well, actually, I don't, but that seems to be my problem anyway, so why bother?)

... %sigh
 ... Well then. You sure think of some creative folks roaming free now, do you?
 \emph{Do you?} Wrong.

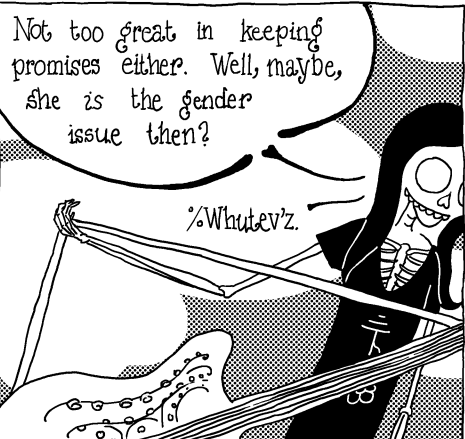

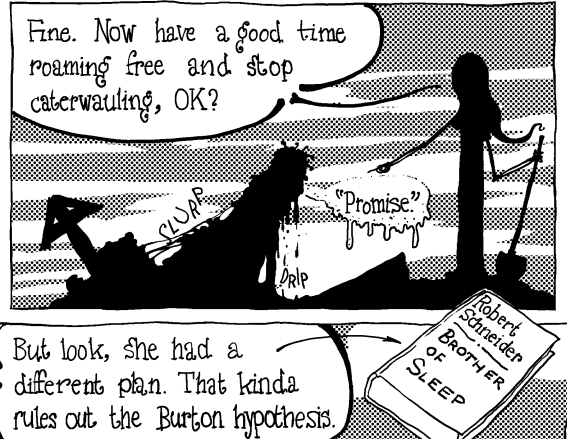

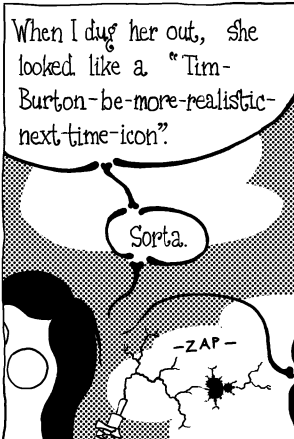

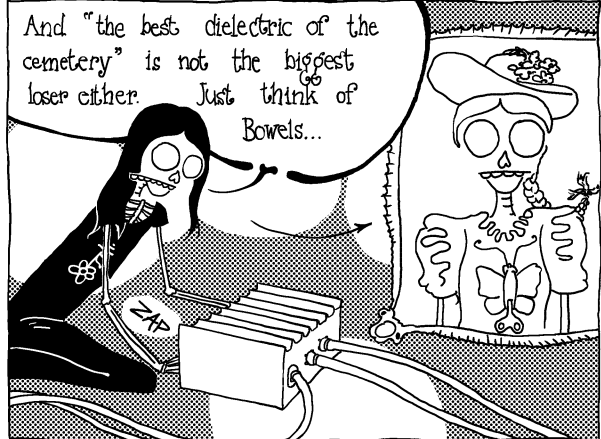

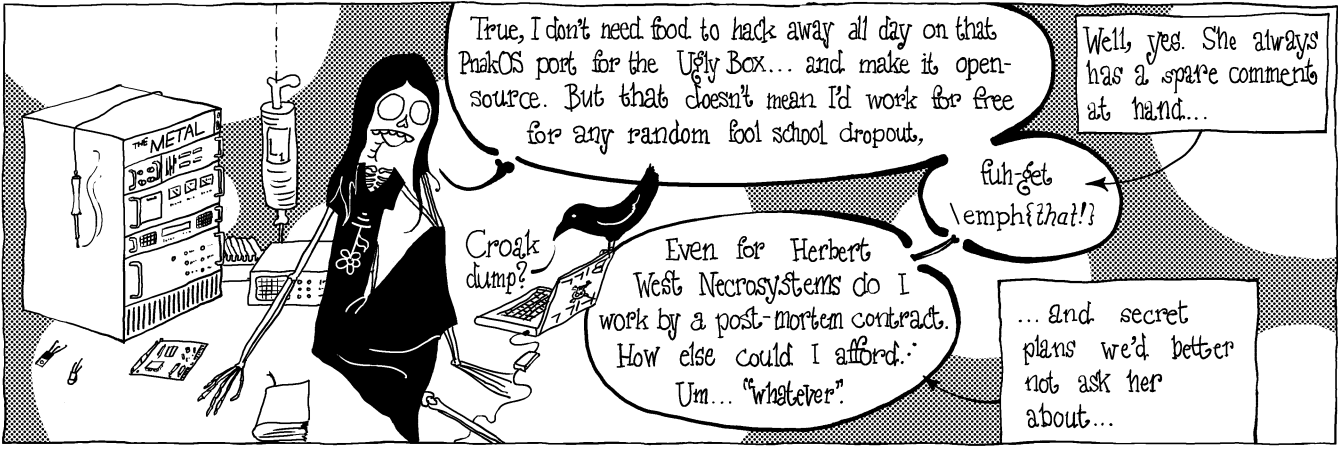

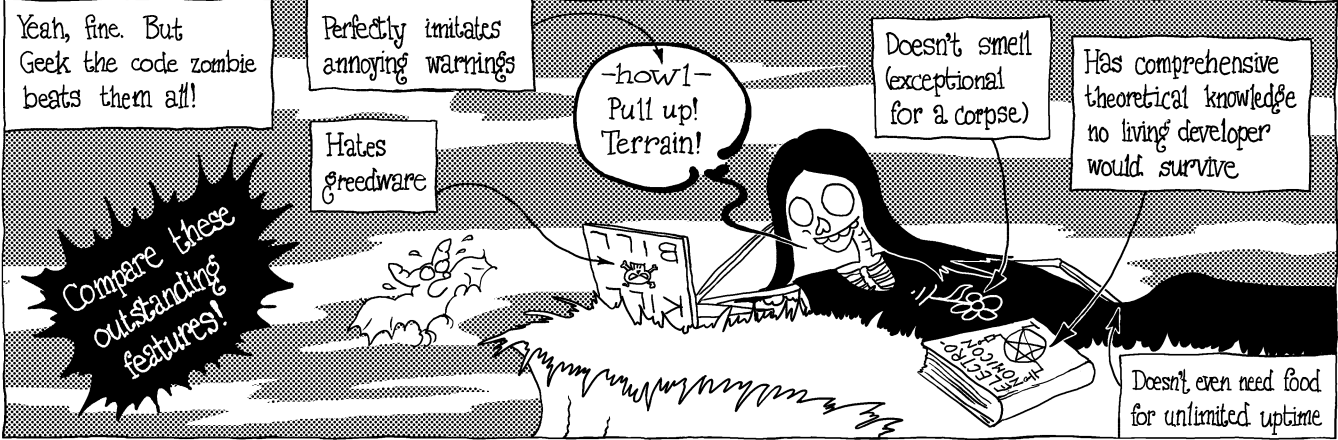

...creative folks are harmless.

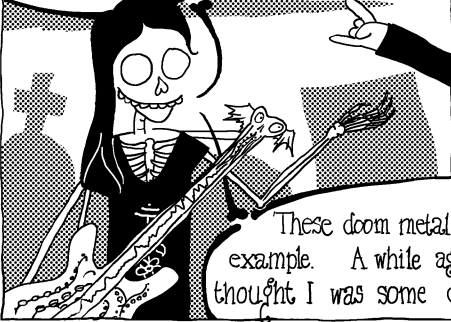

...like code junkies...

...or code monkeys.

...There's a lot of much more interesting folks 'round here anyway.

These doom metal addicts, for example. A while ago, they even thought I was some cool hallucination.

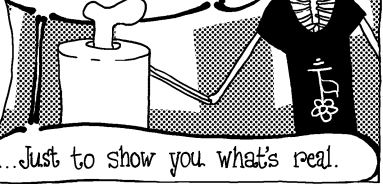

Whoa, that rocks! Now, let's try that with your death rattle again!

Oh maaaan! You and your death rattle... She's got such beautiful voice, let's do that old "Black God" solo instead!

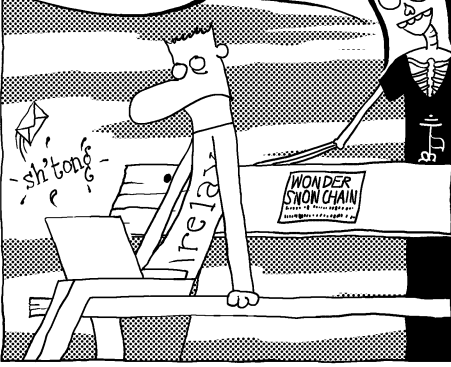

LOL, nice try folks, but I'll go instrumental this time, and Turn Loose ye Swans on my Tesla coil.

...Just to show you what's real.

...And then, there's Damn.

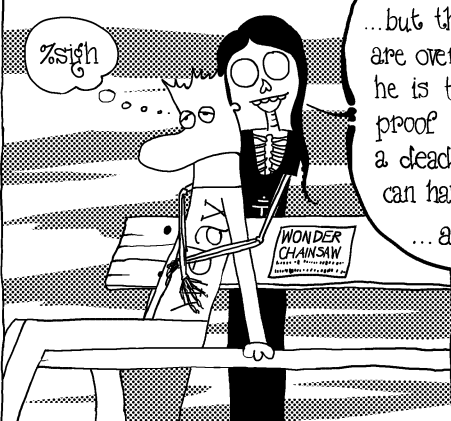

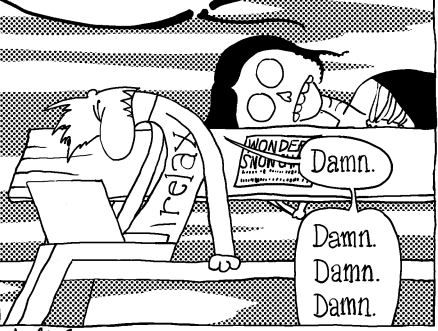

He's an academia refugee with swollen scars from the industry.

aim to leverage team efficiency by entrusting Rajeev with those "safety-critical real-time functions" or whatever

He used to teach me... well, stuff even he doesn't remember...

...but those days are over. Now, he is the living proof that even a dead geek can have... a friend...

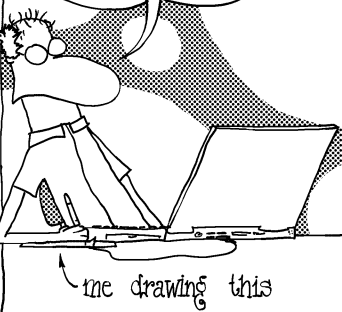

I never had one in life, for that matter.

Yeah. Now you got one that even came shipped with a bonus /dev/null for your emotions. -glub-

Y'know... "Charge sink" would muuuuch more smother the electrical engineer in me.

So, I guess, it's about time to call it a day then.

Unlimited uptime, remember that feature?

Look, someone's dreams are continuous!
